May Ball Auction

The May Ball is upon us and we hope that everyone going will have a really enjoyable evening. The class teachers have been reading and recording stories and these are available for the auction at the Ball. The details are below of who has read which story:

- Miss Lambert: The Ugly Duckling
- Mrs Henry: The Magic Porridge Pot
- Miss Ayres: Billy Goats Gruff
- Miss Eggleston: Jack and the Beanstalk
- Miss Thompson: Cinderella - with musical accompaniment from Mrs Jackson
- Mrs Kelsey: Little Red Riding Hood

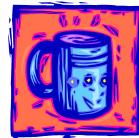

Coffee Morning for School Travel Questionnaire

There will be a coffee morning on Friday 18th June (9.00 - 9.45am in the hall) to follow up from the results of the school travel questionnaire, where a number of parents were interested in the informal walking bus idea and of investigating the likelihood of arranging a park and stride location. Please come along to hear about the walking bus and the park and stride possibilities and to talk in general about travelling to school. I have invited a representative from the police to join our discussions.

Looking forward to seeing people there.

Miss Ayres.

Butterflies - Library Books

Please note that from now on library books for Butterflies class will now be changed on Wednesdays.

School Trips

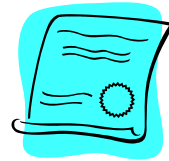

Just a reminder: please can you send in your consent forms and payments for the trips for all three year groups. Thank you.

Reception Picnic

Don't forget, please send in your £1.00 contribution towards the Reception year picnic which is being held Friday 21st May. Thanks.

Celebration Assembly

In our celebration assembly today children were awarded their certificate in Butterflies and Ladybirds for -

- Making a careful stained glass picture of a rainbow, the Christian symbol of hope
- An excellent information sheet about our school
- Knowledge of key features of a non-fiction page
- Careful sounding out to label a picture
- Writing two sentences for the caption with capital letters and full stops

In Grasshoppers and Caterpillars children received their certificate for -

- Putting an enormous amount of effort into story writing this week
- Working in a group to investigate the growth of cress seeds
- Planning and writing a story

Finally the children in Dragonflies and Honeybees had their certificate for -

- Writing a very good plan for a story
- Making great progress in numeracy and working more independently
- Excellent descriptive writing including speech marks and exclamation marks
- Demonstrating hockey skills to the class and helping others learn

Children also brought in their certificates and awards in from the clubs they do outside of school. We saw certificates for -

- Rugby
- Ice skating
- Swimming
- Trampolining
- Beavers
